NEW TENANTS AT VILLAGE COURT

In case you haven't heard, there are some new tenants in the Housing for the Elderly. Actually, they are staying in the hallways (with a nice, sunny, southern exposure). When you consider they eat nothing at all they, nevertheless, are very much overweight, probably because they sit around all day and night. They are very quiet and don't bother the other tenants -- they don't even speak to them! We understand they are only there temporarily, however.

Selectmen's Meeting

OCTOBER 11, 1983 - by Virginia Arral

GRANGE HALL

Charles B. Lalli of 24 North Street, president of the International Fine Arts Trading Company, has expressed an interest in purchasing the Grange Hall. Selectmen agreed to notify him of any action it takes on the sale or lease.

The Board prepared a preliminary advertisement for the sale or lease of the hall. Bids will be accepted until 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, December 13, 1983, and will be opened at the regular 7 p.m. Selectmen's meeting that evening.

Among the provisions for a sale or lease will be that the bidder will explain the true use to which the property will be put; priority will be given to those who will retain the building's historical significance; that the use will be in the best interest of the town.

Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta noted the 1816 building has been checked by professionals and found to be free of termites.

CONGRATULATIONS OF OFFICER MILTON F. HEUBERGER, JR.

Milton H. Heuberger, Jr. was commended by the Selectmen on his dedication to the Mattapoisett Police Department and to the town in his investigation of the Slye Foxe Tavern fire (November 8, 1981). A letter will be sent to Officer Heuberger and one will be placed in his personnel file noting the commendation. Heuberger has been a member of the department for 20 years.

A letter was read from Police Chief James Moran in which he commended Officer Heuberger for "his exceptional police work in a difficult investigation". After two years of investigation involving

A traffic study made of Acushnet Road by the State Traffic Control Department determined a speed zone is not recommended as the area was judged to be used primarily as a local road.

However, the state did suggest signs be placed where needed designating SLOW-CHILDREN. This suggestion will be incorporated and referred to the town highway department.

family dwellings are to be erected, to be set back 100 feet from mean high water. Covenants covering the development were described as similar to those used in the Boardman development allowing one principal dwelling and guesthouse and prohibiting subdivision. The road is planned to be built to the same level as the causeway and a waiver is requested permitting a 20' width of unpaved road.

The Arthur Thompson office in Marion did the engineering survey work. According to the plans, the parcels will be expensive ocean front lots with no plans for piers, docks or walls.

Mr. Stewart stated that there will be individual parking on the parcels with a turn-around. There is a possibility of a gate located at the end of the causeway. It was stated that power lines would be most practical as overhead lines but no decision is set. The causeway is not to be lighted.

Mr. Stewart said that soil testing for the septic system indicated excellent soil for that purpose. He stated that water testing indicates a layer of floating fresh water and the well driller recommends a shallow, large diameter well system. A study prepared by Alexander Beichek of Marine Research Inc. of Falmouth, Mass. indicated that the flow of water in the cove is neglible and concluded there would be no change in the cove by development of the island.

Mr. Stewart stated that no water clarity test had been done but that it would be presented to the Board of Health when done.

Open Letter to Parents

IN MATTAPOISETT, MARION AND ROCHESTER:

Many of you have concerns about your child's use or perhaps future use of drugs and alcohol. Presently being organized nationwide is a program called "THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE". This program could play an important part in your child's life.

A community meeting for concerned parents and residents of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester will be held at ORRHS on Wednesday, November 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. At that time television sets will be tuned into the nationwide broadcast of "The Chemical People". After viewing the program a panel of local experts on the subject of local abuses will be available to talk with us and answer our concerns.

The two biggest promotors of alcohol and drug abuse are DENIAL and APATHY. Help your child to say NO!! Join us the evening of November 2nd at ORR, view this broadcast and discuss and learn about our local communities' involvement in this

It's the Continental curtain rod by Kirsch.
A curtain rod, yes, but because it measures 4 1/2" from top to bottom, it automatically creates a luxurious shirred heading. And because you choose the projection of its brackets, it has a myriad of uses.

THE CHINA TRADE AND ITS DECORATIVE ARTS

Mr. Crosby Forbes, founder and curator of The China Trade Museum in Milton, MA., will be the guest speaker at the October meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club. Mr. Forbes will be presenting a slide program on the China Trade and Its Decorative Arts. He will speak about painting, furniture, textiles, metal and lacquerware. The Mattapoisett Woman's Club is very pleased to have such a distinguished speaker and looks forward to seeing many members at this interesting meeting.

The meeting will be held October 20th, at 1 p.m. in the Congregational Church Parish Hall. There will be babysitting available at a nominal fee.

FINE ARTS GROUP

The Fine Arts Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club is planning a trip to the Danforth Museum in Framingham on Friday, October 28th, to see the exhibit "Grandma Moses: The Artist Behind the Myth". Anna Mary Robertson (Grandma Moses) was born in 1860, began painting when her fingers became too arthritic for needlework, and was "discovered" when she was in her seventies. She is thought of an American "primitive", and by the time she was 100 she and her innocent art had found their way into the American imagination. This is particularly significant given the fact that it happened just as the sophisticated New York School and abstract expressionism was dominating American art. If you are interested in this trip call Norma Holt at 758-4986.

SENIORS ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE FOR SCHOLARSHIP AND COMPUTER

Old Rochester Regional High School seniors are being encouraged to compete for a $3,000 four-year college scholarship and an NCR personal computer that will be awarded this spring to approximately 100 students throughout the country.

The scholarships and personal computers are being offered through the NCR Centennial Scholars Program, established by NCR Corporation as part of the company's 100th anniversary celebration for 1984.

The program provides an opportunity for two seniors (one male and one female) in each state to win a $750 cash scholarship for each of four years of college. Each winner also will receive an NCR personal computer valued at more than $3,000.

Winners will be selected through a two-stage screening process. Test results and self-reported descriptive information released to the Program from the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) of the College Board's Admissions Testing Program or from the American College Testing Program's ACT Assessment will be used for the first screening. A small number of participants (approximately 25 males and 25 females from each state) will be designated as Finalists as a result of this first screening.

Bowling League

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE OCTOBER 11, 1983

The Marion Golf Club father-son duo single-handedly took on the BowlMor house team with questionable success. Bowlmor snatched all three forfeit points with a team effort worthy of praise. John O'Leary was high for both teams with a Herculean 440 total. Herb's T.V. (Louis Ouellette 324) rolled over a disgruntled Megaforce Five for a three point triumph. Hartley Saw Mill (Carl Johnson 378 and John Cebula 406) gained a nomination to the Mattapoisett Bowling Hall of Fame as they punished a previously undefeated pirate team, the Bowling Stones, with a two-point loss. D. DeJesus encored as top bowler for the Bowling Stones. Shouts of revelry stirred the air as Guaranteed Pest Control swamped Sturtevant and Hook in a two-point victory. Top bowler for the "Pest Team" was D. Jones (354) with Eddie Arruda leading Sturtevant and Hook.

Hunter Safety Course

SCHEDULED IN MATTAPOISETT

Natural Resource Officer Gerald Santos has scheduled a hunter safety course to be held at the Fin, Fur and Feather Club on 35 Crystal Springs Road, Mattapoisett. The first class will get underway at 9:00 a.m. on October 23rd.

Each person who graduates from a hunter safety program conducted by the Division of Law Enforcement, Department of Fisheries and Wildlife, receives a Certificate of Competency in the Safe Handling of Firearms. The Certificate of Competency allows a person between the ages of 15 and 17 years, after purchasing a hunting or sporting license with parental permission, to hunt in Massachusetts woodlands without being accompanied by a licensed adult.

Many states require this training - provided without charge in Massachusetts before they will issue any hunting license.

The Hunter Safety Course scheduled for Mattapoisett is open to residents of Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester and Wareham. Commissioner of Fisheries Wildlife and Recreational Vehicles Walter Bickford suggests that residents of other towns who wish to participate in a hunter safety class contact the Division of Law Enforcement, 100 Cambridge Street, Boston, MA. 02202.

Mattapoisett Historical Society

Sea stories from the whaling days are always interesting and sometimes amusing. Lillian Fenton, daughter of David and Mary Tripp Baker, wrote an account of her parents' voyage on the bark "Ohio" in 1858-1862. They were accompanied by their son, Willie, age 7. The following are excerpts from this account:

"Willie hardly knew his father, Cap'n David, and stood in awe of him and knew he was to do what he was told. The day came when his father decided that Willie must learn to swim. The fear in his son when a rope was tied around him and he was lowered into the ocean and told to swim was something his father didn't understand. The child was terrified, but he knew must obey. His mother looked on and prayed silently, but Willie learned to swim and soon enjoyed it.

"It was on this voyage that the cook was complaining that eggs were disappearing. Cap'n David, having an idea that cook himself had a fondness for eggs, paid no attention. One day he lay on his couch. He dozed and was awakened by a little noise. Fortunately he didn't move, though what he saw was startling. Along the floor moved slowly a strange procession. A large rat lay on his back, his four legs grasping securely...one egg! Another rat was dragging him carefully by the tail back to their own larder. David, feeling he had shamefully misjudged cook, sauntered into the galley and announced, 'Cook, I know who is stealing the eggs.'

"So the eggs were moved and traps were set.

"Willie enjoyed many things aboard ship. In the galley he watched cook preparing meals. Salt pork, mostly, plum duff once in a while. Perhaps, for a change, fish caught by one of the men was to be cooked. It was a strange fish and must be tested. Into the frying pan with the fish cook tossed a silver coin. He and Willie watched anxiously. Would it stay bright? If so they would have fish for dinner. If it turned green as it sometimes did, 'over the side' it must go, back to the sea from which it came for it was poisonous. The test was considered infallible.

"Nearing the end of the voyage, Mary, the Captain's wife, knew she didn't have 'anything to wear'...nor did she. The few clothes she had bought in far away ports were styles three or four years behind the fashions. So she went shopping in Rio.

"In her friendly way she took the saleslaadies into her confidence. Deeply interested, the ladies brought out lovely dresses assuring her they were the latest Paris styles. So Mary bought happily. Six months later, when the bark "Ohio" reached New Bedford, arrayed in those 'latest Paris fashions' she walked from Nicki, who attended Bishop Stang High School, scored three goals in Dartmouth's 4-0 win over the University of Vermont on September 27. Her other goal came against Princeton in the Green's season-opening 2-0 shutout of the defending Ivy League champions.

A sophomore, Nicki joined the varsity for the final eight games of the 1982 season and provided a clue about her offensive prowess with three goals in Dartmouth's stretch run.

Nicki is a prospective geography major.

BIERSTADT SOCIETY TO PRESENT
PHIL WILSON AND MAKOTO OZONE

Makoto Ozone, a 21-year old phenomenon from Kobe, Japan, and Phil Wilson, trombonist, will appear at the Zeiterion Theatre on Sunday, October 23rd, at 8:00 p.m. for the benefit of the Bierstadt Art Society.

Makoto Ozone will soon graduate from Berklee College of Music in Boston where composer and trombonist Phil Wilson has been one of his teachers. Ozone is regarded as a genius in piano and jazz and has appeared on the national and international scene. Playing as if he had spent his entire life absorbing all the elements of jazz, he is a virtual encyclopedia of styles, but his taste, rhythmic sensitivity and humor have put this eclecticism to flawless use. Ozone's father owns a jazz nightclub in Tokyo. John S. Wilson, music critic of the New York Times, is known for discovering rising stars and has given him rave reviews for command of piano.

The Bierstadt Society is a collaborative for contemporary artists concerned with fostering, assisting and sustaining an active interest in the Fine Arts.

The Bierstadt Society originally scheduled Phil Wilson and Makoto Ozone for October 30 but Ozone received an invitation to play in Berlin, Germany on that date. The concert has been re-

Human Needs

The first area-wide Conference on Human Needs will be held Wednesday, October 26th, at the Greater New Bedford Vocational Technical High School, co-chairman Joseph Barbero has announced.

"In late June, a group of area human service providers formed a steering committee to develop a conference to address the Human Needs of the Greater New Bedford area. The committee has met weekly since June 21 and is developing an informative agenda which should be completed in early September," Barber said.

The conference has two purposes: 1) to enable human service providers and their boards to become more aware of the other services available in the area; 2) to develop a discussion between the myriad human service providers in the area of the UNMET human needs in Greater New Bedford.

The program will begin at 2 p.m. and include two panel discussions, keynote speakers and dinner. Participating human service organizations will also have informational booths set up throughout the conference. One of the panels will discuss the unmet human needs in the Greater New Bedford area. The second panel discussion will respond to the hypothetical question, "What would I do with $100,000 to work toward solving these needs?"

Although the program is aimed primarily at human service providers, the public may participate in the conference on a space available, first come, first served basis.

John K. Bullard is serving as conference committee co-chairman. Other committee members are Joyce Anderson, League of Women Voters; Ruth Bolton, Parkwood Hospital; Sue Broughton, Department of Mental Health; Mary Burns, St. Luke's Hospital; Jean Clarke, New Bedford Child and Family Service; Michele DeMary and Liz Martin, Office for Children; Robert Dennie, Fairhaven Public Schools; Craig Dutra, PACE; Dr. Lou Gomes, Department of Social Services; Harry Kummer, Greater New Bedford

The Samaritans- New Branch

The Samaritans, the international suicide prevention organization, announces the formation of a new branch to serve the Fall River/New Bedford area.

It will be a 24-hour service, 7 days a week, the only service specifically directed towards suicidal people and those concerned about them. Latest 1981 figures show 8 suicides officially recorded in Fall River and 8 in New Bedford. Since suicide is always under-reported, the actual number is probably greater, and for every suicide, it is estimated that there may be 200 suicide attempts.

The Samaritans is a privately funded, all volunteer service for anyone who is suicidal, depressed or lonely, or needs someone to talk to in confidence for any reason. Started in London, England in 1953, The Samaritans was brought to this country in 1974 by British writer Monica Dickens, who is helping to organize the Fall River/New Bedford branch.

There are now 7 active branches and 7 in preparation. The need for Samaritan service is proved by the thousands of people who call each branch, or come into the center. In 1982, the Providence and Cape Cod branches received about 1,500 calls from more than 200 people in the Fall River

Volunteers for the new branch are needed now for training. Men and women 20 or over who are good listeners, and would like to give a few hours of their time each week to this vital service are asked to call 993-6242 or 679-5222, or to call The Samaritans in Providence or Falmouth for an interview appointment for the Samaritan training course.

PAUL WINTER CONSORT TO APPEAR WITH PLYMOUTH PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

Hearing the Paul Winter Consort can be an extraordinary experience! This internationally recognized group will appear with the Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra on Saturday, October 22nd, at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall, Court Street, Plymouth.

Just what is a consort? The traditional definition is a group who accompanies, or a companion - but a companion to what? With the Paul Winter Consort, it is a group who is a companion to the music of the earth.

Paul Winter and his group are both musicians and environmental activists. They believe in taking their audiences on what Winter calls "an advance into the wilderness" where wolf howls, eagle cries, whale bellows and seal barks mesh with the group's symphonic, jazz, Latin and African sounds.

Winter's aim - to keep nature in front of people in some way by leaving an impact on them through the voices of animals - is a philosophy that has drawn much applause from environmental groups. To get such animal sounds, Winter has floated in a raft off the coast of British Columbia, letting whales "sing" to him. He has serenaded wolves in the High Sierras with his saxophone until they replied. The sounds eventually culminated in his own musical description of animals, sensitive pieces that speak of the simple, lonely, often haunting sound of the wilderness.

Ultimately, Winter says, the purpose behind all of his music is to awaken people to the music within themselves. He is in complete agreement with Henry David Thoreau who said, "The woods would be silent if the only birds that sang were the ones that sang the best".

The Consort's appearance with the Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra not only includes familiar Consort works - "Wolf Eyes", "Whale Lullaby", "Common Ground", and "Themes from 'missa Gaia'" - but features two world premieres by Consort members as well. The Consort comes to the Philharmonic directly following their appearance at Boston's Symphony Hall.

To hear this unique group in concert with the Philharmonic, get your tickets at Notes & Quotes, Kingsbury Square; The Ruddy Duck, Duxbury Crossroads; Plymouth Music Inc., Plymouth Center; or call the Philharmonic office at 746-8008.

This concert is funded in part by a grant from the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company through the New England Foundation for the Arts. Additional funding from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities, a state agency.

SMU Lecture

"LIBERAL EDUCATION IN THE AGE OF ATARI"

Frank Newman, former president of the University of Rhode Island, will lecture on "Liberal Education in the Age of Atari" on October 26th at 3:30 p.m. in Room 153 of the College of Visual and Performing Arts (Group 6) Building, Southeastern Massachusetts University.

His talk is the second this fall in the University's Distinguished Guest Lecture Series, which was established in the fall of 1982 to enrich the educational and scholarly life of the university. The intent of the series was to bring distinguished scholars, scientists, artists, and writers to the campus for a variety of lectures, talks, and informal seminars. Last year's speakers addressed their remarks to "Science, Technology, and Society".

The theme for this year's series is "The Crisis in Education". A federal commission recently focused on this multi-faceted problem which goes to the heart of our society: its values, legal system, sense of community and civic virtue. Those who see in the crisis a need to increase the training of scientists and engineers tend to concentrate on the competitive context of international trade and, to some degree, warfare. From such a perspective, there is an apparent misallocation of educational resources which can be corrected primarily by putting greater emphasis on, and increasing, financial support for science education.

Newman served Minneapolis-Honeywell as market sales manager in New York from 1949 to 1955 and Beckman Instruments, Inc., Richmond, California, as division manager from 1955 to 1966.

From industry he turned to Stanford University, where he became associate general secretary in 1967 and director of university relations in 1970. In 1974 he became president of the University of Rhode Island, and this year he was named Presidential Fellow at the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching in Princeton, New Jersey.

He received his bachelor's degree from Brown University and graduate degrees from Columbia and Stanford Universities.

The SMU Distinguished Guest Lecture Series is sponsored by grants from the New Bedford Standard-Times and the SMU Foundation.

The lectures are free and open to the public.

Ram Island Dance Co.

Senta Driver, and Sam Costa, among others. Founded in 1971, the Company has made a name for itself with its varied repertory programming and strong athletic style. Costa, a trained college athlete, has studied and danced with Viola Farber, June Finch, Paul Taylor, and Twyla Tharp. The Company's dancers come from various backgrounds throughout the United States with study and experience under most of the major dance figures in America from ballet to Merce Cunningham.

The themes of the works in the repertory cover a broad range from anti-nuke to natural science abstractions and punk bopping. "Imagination and breadth characterize the Company which is trained meticulously by Costa, a well-known innovator in the field of sports exercises programs for schools and colleges," said Vincent Luti of the Cultural Affairs Committee.

The Company consistently receives excellent reviews for its imaginative work and distinctive athleticism. Ram Island has been described by reviewers in Boston papers and Dance Magazine as a strong mainstream dance group with echoes of Pilobolus, Nikolais, and Lars Lubovitch threading through the choreography and technique of Costa's ensemble. If the end result often has the speed and impact of contact sports, it might be a reflection of the fact that choreographer Costa and his dance trainer, Stephen Goldbas, are both

Children's Museum

PUPPETRY COURSE

Among the courses and workshops to be conducted by the Children's Museum this fall are two arts programs for children.

"Puppetry" is a six-week course on making and working with puppets. It will be held Saturday mornings at 10-11:30 beginning October 22. The course is designed for youngsters aged 8 through 10 years. All materials will be provided. The last class session will include a performance by the children with the puppets they made themselves.

A workshop entitled "Stenciling" is being offered for children ages 5 through 8 on Saturday, October 29. Children will make their own scary and funny cut-out designs to take home. The workshop is scheduled for 1 to 3 p.m.

Both programs have limited enrollment space and pre-registration. Interested persons should contact the Children's Museum at 993-3361 for details.
